Mata Amritanandamayi Math to offer scholarships

Special Correspondent

HYDERABAD: Mata Amritanandamayi Math, Mahendra Hills is launching 'Vidyamritham Scheme' for providing educational scholarships to 5,000 needy children in the State.

Disclosing this to media persons here on Tuesday, Math incharge, AP, Raghunath said that the scheme would be launched by the Chief Minister Y.S.Rajasekhara Reddy during the visit of Mata Amritanandamayi to the city on February 22. The children were selected from poor and distressed families.

Mata Amritanandamayi, popularly called as 'Amma' by devotees, would participate in a congregation at Parade Grounds on the day.

A Telugu book and a video CD on Amritanandamayi, a souvenir on 'Amrita Kripa-2008' would be released Industries Minister J.Geetha Reddy on the same day..

Mr.Raghunath said that Mata Amritanandamayi Math was one of the largest charitable organisations in the country taking up various activities including scholarships to 200 children of farmers who committed suicide. The math also organises poor feeding, distribution of clothes to the needy and free medical camps at regular intervals.
