

Conference Registration Number:210

Title: A Valetudinarian world and Hospital Acquired Infections: A Case Study in a Teaching Healthcare Facility in Himachal Pradesh

Author: Dr Sukesh Trikha, Research Scholar at Jawaharlal Nehru University (JNU)

Valetudinarian World

- Demographic transition
- Epidemiological transition
- Road Traffic Accidents

Incomplete
Adherence to IPC

- Overcrowding
- Understaffing
- Inadequate environmental hygienic conditions

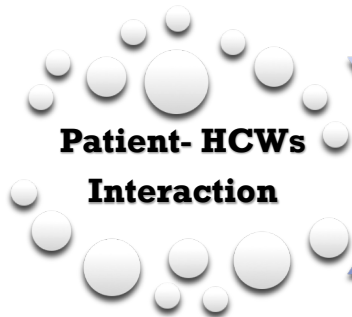

Case Study

Intends to understand, gain insight into the complex phenomenon of IPC in real life context

Teaching
Healthcare
Facility

- Healthcare, a safety critical industry that not only requires systems to reduce harm, but also a education/training system in which safety and quality is central
- Next Generation of HCWs

Patient- HCWs Interaction

- NPOs
- FGDs

Institutional IPC Protocols

IDIs

National/State IPC Guidelines

Review

Global Perspectives on IPC

Latest Updates

Values/Principles of Biomedicine

- Nonmaleficence
- Beneficence
- Autonomy
- Confidentiality