Amrita Institute of Medical Sciences (Amrita Hospital), based in Kochi, Kerala, India is recognised as one of the premier tertiary healthcare institutions in South Asia that is currently offering Fellowship programs in various specialities.

Interventional Radiology is a subspecialty of Radiology which deals with minimally invasive procedures that are performed under image guidance. These procedures can be diagnostic or therapeutic and are carried out with the help of modern ultrasound, fluoroscopic and CT equipment.

Course objectives
Upon completion of the course, one aims to be sufficiently skilled in performing solid organ biopsies, complex drainage procedures, biliary and vascular interventions; its pre and post procedural management.

Department: Radiology
Duration: 1 year
No: of seats available: 1 per year
Commencement month: April
Eligibility: MD / DNB in related areas.

Contact: international@amrita.edu, acipkochi@aims.amrita.edu, smoorthy@aims.amrita.edu